
On the Title Page

Authors must include a publishable statement for each author, disclosing all professional financial relationships from the period of conception of the study or work until publication of the manuscript. Such associations include association with the makers of products that compete with the one studied. Payments for conducting or publicizing the study should be disclosed. Authors are requested to list financial relationship disclosure (conflict of interest) and acknowledgment of assistance with manuscript preparation on the title page.

The list below is the format we require for the title page.

The component parts of the statement are:

1. Author Contributions
2. Funding/Support
3. Role of the Sponsors
4. Financial Disclosure of the Authors
5. Acknowledgment

A template to use in preparing your statement is provided below. Please note that the only author who can make changes in the description of his or her contributions is the author involved. If one author wishes to make changes to the contributions described by another author, that other author must provide written permission for such changes.
